

MAHATMA GANDHI UNIVERSITY
Yellareddyguda, NALGONDA - 508 254

www.mguniversity.ac.in

Mobile: 9948571888, Email : cdcdean@gmial.com

Date: 29-03-2022

UG VI Sem optional papers and guidelines for project report

1. It is hereby informed to the college Principals, Lecturers and students regarding selection of optional paper stream wise in VI Semester of UG Course is follows;

(1). Life Science Streams	(a) Zoology	-	Tools and Techniques in Biology
	(b) Chemistry	-	Advanced Chemistry
(2). Mathematical Science streams	(a) Mathematics	-	Mathematical Modeling
	(b) Physics	-	Nano Science
	(c) Chemistry	-	Advanced Chemistry
	(d). Computer Science	-	PHP with MySQL
(3). Social Science Streams	(a) Economics	-	Financial Economics
	(b) History	-	Ancient Civilization
	(c) Political Science	-	Contemporary Political theory

Note:- One of the optional paper has to be chosen by a student from their respective streams only.

2. Further, they are also informed that the guidelines for project report preparation, if any student chooses to do so is as follows:

Chapterisation /Sections

- I. Title of the Project
- II. Introduction
- III. Importance/Significance of the problem
- IV. Objectives of the Project.
- V. Methods of Collection of information/Methodology/Formulation of the problem.
- VI. Results and discussion.
- VII. Summary and Conclusion.
- VIII. References

Number of pages should be a minimum of 30 pages and four students as a group can do one project and this project report can be prepared in any one of the optional subject of their course.

(Note:- The above pattern given are only broad guidelines. But it can vary from subject to subject based on the nature of the subject).

Distribution of marks for project report- - 50 Marks

Presentation - 30 Marks

Viva-voce - 20 Marks

Total - 100 Marks

KARELLY
DEAN, CDC
29/3/2022