23th – 25th January, 2018

Sponsored by Telangana State Council of Higher Education
(TSCHE)

Organized by College Development Council,
Mahatma Gandhi University,
Nalgonda– 508254

About the University:

Mahatma Gandhi University originally the PG Centre of Osmania University is established in the year 1987 to provide academic excellence to remote village students of the backward regions.

The PG Centre is upgraded as Mahatma Gandhi University in the year 2007 and is one of the fast growing learning centres in India. Ever since its inception the University offering courses on inter-disciplinary approach and develop them on sustainable line.

Through multi-faceted range of programs in Arts, Humanities, Basic-Sciences, Social Sciences, Commerce, Business Management and Engineering & Technology by state-of-the art infrastructure and committed facility. The University has carved a niche for itself in the field of academic learning and research. The University is located in sprawling campus of 250 acres in Yellareddyguda of Nalgonda.

Rural Engagement Project Study:

Mahatma Gandhi University is adopting several strategies to focus on imbibing the spirit of Community Service among students community. There is no particular curriculum for inculcating this spirit among them. Hence it is felt that it is the need of the hour that a Rural Community Engagement Project Study for a period of four semesters in the UG & PG Courses are needed to offer as an optional course.

Being the University located in rural background and 90% of intake with rural background this initiation is taken to engage them in course of their education about their local community issues, challenges prevalent more so, in the rural community. There is a huge gap between the textual knowledge and evolving contextual practices, especially in rural India. Hence, this Project Work is intended to fill the gap.

About the Workshop:

In the context of implementing the Rural Engagement Project Study, it is proposed to impart the students' community with necessary knowledge on Research Methodology to make them understand the nuances of Research. Hence, this proposed workshop focusses on process of conduct of the Project Study.

Eminent Academicians in the field have given their consent to train the participants on the concept. Hence, it a great opportunity to all the participating students.

Further, it is also intended to fine tune the knowledge of the Mentors on the subject.
